A VALUBALE COTTON FARM FOR RENT OR LEASE,

FOR A TERM OF YEARS.—The subscriber wishes to lease for a term of years his plantation near Marlboro, Pitt County.

The farm contains about

400 ACRES

of improved land, well adapted to the growth of cotton and corn. The facilities for composting or manuring are greater than ordinary.

Vegetable mould, or peat, well rotted, lies in a branch for near a mile in length on one side of the field, overlying marl of superior richness. This marl contains, by analysis, with other fertilizing constituents, 6 pr. ct. of Coprolite, or Phosphate of Lime.

There are ample buildings for dwelling and every needful purpose, on the place.

To the farmers of the middle counties, industrious, working, practical men, who wish to repair their fortunes by cotton planting, this place offers rare inducements. To such men, if without capital, I could give aid the first year, by furnishing stock, provisions &c., to be paid for out of the crop, if desired.

As none but industrious, working men can make cotton successfully, none but those who come well recommended as such need apply.

TO THE

COLORED PEOPLE

OF

NORTH CAROLINA.

CONVENTION, 1866.

The State Convention of colored men, held in this city last September, as a medium through which the colored citizens could communicate their thoughts, purposes and desires, formed a State League, with its auxiliaries, to look after the interests of the Colored People of the State. The State Legislature has been memorialized in behalf of the colored people, and our petition was treated with respectful consideration. We have, as far as practicable, established auxiliary Leagues to promote the cause of Education, and to look after the suffering poor. While we feel a deep sense of gratitude to those Benevolent Societies which have done so much for the Freedman, still we are conscious of the fact that we must learn to rely upon ourselves, and the world is looking to us for a demonstration of our capacity to perform the part of useful, intelligent citizens.

The State League is the only recognized organization we, as a colored people, have; and it having performed its duties to the best of its ability, it was enjoined upon us to call another Convention, to be held in the City of Raleigh, on the first Tuesdays in October next, the 2nd. day of the month. Let each county be represented as the counties are represented in the State Legislature. In counties where there are Leagues the county to be represented by the Leagues.—Let each county send its best men as delegates.—This is no time to compliment friends at the expense of the public good. Let the people be influenced only by the consideration of qualification, and let the delegates be here promptly on the day appointed, that we may counsel together for the good of our people, and adopt such measures as will best promote our interests.

It is earnestly desired that every county be fully represented.

Delegates will come prepared to defray the expenses of the Convention.

Ladies will find this the best opportunity to procure choice new styles of FALL DRESS GOODS, which I am now opening in great variety, such as splendid Eugenia and Empress Cloths, Crepes, Merinos, Goldanelia, richly embroidered—an entirely new things, rich, brilliant silk stripes on chene grounds: "Transconia A'Soie, effective Carcaux, with rich Broches," "Lornetto, effective Satin Carreaux," on lasting finish grounds, very costly; "Rich Valentia, in plain chene," all new and desirable shades, prime qualities and beautiful designs, with rich Broches.

A magnificent assortment of

SQUARE & LONG SHAWLS

in all their new styles and combinations, at prices that will not fail to please. I would call special attention to my stock of the largest in Va., or North Carolina, embracing 20,000 yards, all bought at auction, and will be sold at prices far below any similar quality ever offered in this market. I have also just received over 10,000 yards of PANTALOON GOODS, in every variety of finish and quality, varying in price from 30c, to $3. This stock is the largest and most complete of the kind that I have ever offered, and will be constantly replenished during the season as the demand requires.

At a future day I will enumerate the different lines of Goods I usually keep. Suffice it to say, at present, that everything kept in any first-class Dry-Goods House can be found here, in every variety, at the lowest prices.

I would say to those in want of

VALUABLE REAL ESTATE,

LOCATED IN AND ADJOINING THE TOWN OF WARRENTON, N. C.

FOR SALE.

The Warrenton Female College is now offered for sale, on reasonable terms. This College has been in successful operation for over twelve years, and, during that time, it has earned a reputation as an Institution of learning, second to none in N. C.

The location is such as to warrant a full attendance of pupils, being very accessible from any point, especially the Eastern portions of N. C. and Va.

The Committee, who have been empowered to make sale of this property, deem it unnecessary to say more of this Institution as its character for a high grade of scholarship, and the elevated standard of morals inculcated, under the eye and supervision of its late President E. E. Parham, is already well known.

The society in which this College is located is known to be equal to any in the South.

There is now a sufficiency of Buildings and other Conveniences attached to this Real Estate, to conduct a large and flourishing school. The premises contain about SIXTY ACRES of Land a material portion of which is within the Corporation. This, with all or a part of the furniture, &c., belonging to the same, can be purchased with the land and buildings. This property will be offered privately for sale until Wednesday the 3rd day October next, and, if not then sold, will be on that day sold, at public auction, to the highest bidder.

The Committee are fully authorized to sell, and would say that a rare chance is offered to any party wishing to purchase such property, as time sufficient, if required, will be given. Possession given immediately.

Any person or party wishing to examine the property will be shown it by E. E. Parham, the present occupant, or by any one or more of the Committee.

INFALLIBLE YEAST POWDERS.

Scientific men, who thoroughly understand the subject, concur with great unanimity in saying that nothing exerts such a deleterious influence against health as bad bread. The remedy is at hand in SIMPSON'S INFALLIBLE YEAST POWDERS, the value of which is thus certified:

RALEIGH, Aug. 24, 1866.

I have tested the Yeast Powders you manufacture and can recommend them as vastly superior to any other ever used by me. In addition to the lightness and sweetness of the bread, the powders are economical, as one-third the lard usually required will answer in the making of either loaf bread or biscuit. For pastries and cakes they are excellent.

VIRGINIA A. OAR.

The price of these powders per package is 25 cts. or 75 cts. per pound. To be had at Wm. Simpson's Confectionary Store, Fayetteville Street, Raleigh, N. C.

RALEIGH, Aug. 23, 1866.

This is to certify that I have used Mr. Simpson's Yeast Powders and find them to be superior to any I have ever used. After trying them once no housekeeper will be satisfied without them.

THE SENTINEL.

WM. L. PELL, SEATON GALES. } Editors.

Saturday Evening, Sept. 22, 1866.

FOR THE CONSTITUTION OF THE UNITED STATES, AS IT IS, AND THE UNION AS IT WAS.
NO FURTHER AMENDMENTS.

FOR GOVERNOR,

JONATHAN WORTH,

OF RANDOLPH.

Mr. Holden's Address.

We have carefully read this paper, put forth by Mr. Holden, under the auspices of the so-called Union meeting held in the Standard office, on Thursday last, which nominated Gen. Dockery for Governor in opposition to Gov. Worth. It has been printed in large quantities to be scattered broad-cast as an electioneering document. To persons ignorant of the history of the past six years, and unacquainted with the real political character and conduct of Mr. Holden in the part which he has borne in that history, it will appear to be a very specious document.

Its statements are made with such seriousness and such a semblance of truth, its assertions are so quietly dogmatical, its attempts at argument are so adroitly covered with special pleading, its temper is so calm, its allusions to the President (who nevertheless is the special object of attack and opposition,) are so respectful, its breathings of devotion to the Union so loyal that the unsophisticated and unsuspecting reader will never once dream that Mr. Holden ever published an untruth in his paper in his life, ever attempted to palm off assertion for proof, assumption for argument, or a quibble for demonstration,—that he ever carried burning rage in his heart, under the guise of a smile, ever said "Alas, my brother," when ready to use the concealed stiletto, and, more than all, that William W. Holden ever taught secession, or, for many years was a blatant, deadly foe to the Union of the States.

When the unsuspecting reader pores over this document, his blood ever and anon stirred at its denunciations against the "leaders of the rebellion," the vile "traitors" who dared to take up arms against the Union, or the heartless "secessionists" who plunged the country into such irretrievable ruin, it will never occur to him, if he be ignorant of the history of the times, that this same William W. Holden, the man who thus writes and who sanctimoniously addresses the "dear people" of North Carolina, was himself for a time a conspicuous "leader of the rebellion," a denouncer of the "glorious old flag," an abuser of Andrew Johnson for his devotion to the Union, one of the very "traitors" who wielded his pen fiercely against that self-same Union, and was the father and defender of secession in North Carolina.

Yet such are the facts. Any man of only ordinary presumption, possessed of only ordinary brass, with such a record as his, would touch lightly or modestly upon such subjects; but his presumption has become a proverb, and such brass, the fervid coals of self-condemnation, though heated seven times, could not melt. But it is no pleasure to us to daguerreotype the picture of a political character whose history is so well known in North Carolina, and the better known the better condemned. His cheeks must have burned, and his ears must have tingled with very shame, while penning a good portion of the address. Indeed, never, until he reaches the last paragraphs of his appeal, does he talk like he was wont in days of yore, when he enjoyed the public confidence, or like a true friend of his native State.

The first two columns of the address are a rehash of the editorial columns of the Standard, especially since the first of January 1866, and are the most objectionable, because the most untruthful, portion of it. He talks of proving what he says, but if he adduces a scintilla of proof to sustain statements which have been denied in these columns time and again, and which are incapable of proof, we have not seen it. There is just enough truth mixed in with falsehood to give plausibility to the statements, in the eyes of ignorant people, or those who are of the same stamp with himself. These statements we may have occasion to allude to frequently.

The second point in the address is an attempt to show the agreement of President Johnson's policy with the principles of the Howard amendment. Mr. Holden here throws off his reserve and tender-footedness, and by his appeals and special pleading boldly urges the people of North Carolina to demand the adoption of the Howard amendment at the hands of the next Legislature.

The third department of the address is mainly devoted to Mr. Holden himself, in which the personal pronoun, I, becomes nauseatingly prominent.

We now come, in this brief analysis of the address and its author, to where he speaks like a man, rising above all partizan and demagogical impulses,—where truth and patriotism seem once more to have irradiated and directed his mind and pen. How glad would we be, had the same beams of light, and truth, and patriotism, permeated his mind and heart, when he penned the other portions of his address, which directed him in the following sentences, which we most heartily and unqualifiedly endorse. Hear him:

"The events through which we have passed have convulsed, and, to a great extent, have changed society. They have impoverished our people. But they have not, therefore, released us from our lawful obligations. These events constitute good reason for indulgence and forbearance in the collection of debts, but the debts remain, and must be paid. I plead only for indulgence and forbearance. We may honestly say we can not, but we cannot honestly say we will not, pay our debts. An honest bankrupt never loses the respect or the confidence of the wise and good; but an individual or a State that says, "it is my hand and seal, but I will not pay," proclaims for himself and his State that there is no virtue in moral obligation. North-Carolina will live always. Centuries hence, her name, and, I trust, her fame will be known among the nations. States prosper and flourish, and are respected, in proportion as they adhere to the eternal principles of justice. Whatsoever we may do now, in this respect, will be known and scrutinized by those who are to come after us; and if our descendants shall be of the noble stamp of our Gaston and Macon, they will blush for their ancestors if they deliberately repudiate their just obligations.

But we are losing golden moments. Interest is being added to principal, thus augmenting our own burdens and the burdens of posterity. Our capacity to discharge our obligations, whether public or private, is greatly restricted by our exclusion from the Union. Every effort and energy, therefore, should be exerted to get back to the Union. The longer we remain out of it, the poorer we shall become, and the heavier will be our burthens as a State and as individuals. While every reasonable forbearance should be shown towards tax-payers and debtors, let us at the same time guard the honor of the State, and our credit as individuals, as of more value to us in the long run than everything else. North-Carolina, though now in the dust of poverty, is still rich in resources. She will yet rise and shine among the wealthiest and proudest of her sisters, and will, in the end, redeem all her obligations. I do not despair either of the Republic or of the future prosperity and glory of our State. But one thing is indispensable, and that is, THE RESTORATION OF THE UNION. With it, we shall at once enter on a new career of prosperity. Without it, every interest will languish, and we shall continue to eat the bread of poverty."

The Loyalist Platform.

We publish the resolutions of the Holden meeting in to-day's issue. Want of space prevents any review of them to-day, in detail. We observe, however, that the first resolution of the series adopted by the squad, that met at the Standard office, on the 20th. inst., asserts that "only those men, without regard to their antecedents, who are 'unmistakably loyal,' should be appointed or elected to office," &c. If "antecedents" are to be ignored, how do these men propose to ascertain present loyalty? Do they, above all men in the world, presume to set themselves up as moral inquisitors, to pry into the hearts of their fellow-citizens, and pronounce as to their motives and feelings?

But perhaps, with them, the test of existing loyalty is endorsement of the Howard amendment. If so, there are not to exceed 5,000 "unmistakably" loyal men, of the Holden-Thomas-Tourgee-Lehman-Carpenter-Robinson-Doughty stripe in North Carolina!

If, however, the definition of loyalty, as given by lexicographers, or statesmen, or political writers, be what they mean, i. e.: fidelity to the sovereign, (in other words, devotion to the Constitution and obedience to the laws,) then we yield our hearty assent to the doctrine inculcated in the resolution. We favor the appointment or election to office of no man, who is not "unmistakably loyal" in this sense.

NO MEETING.—Owing to the fact that the notice for the public meeting this morning did not have time to be generally circulated, the attendance from the county was small, as we apprehended it would be. It had previously been determined, in view of the conflicting partialities of our friends for different persons, not to make any formal nominations; and it was therefore concluded that it would be best, under all the circumstances, not to hold the meeting, but to leave every man to the decision of his own judgment in selecting persons for whom to vote. Out of the many candidates in the field, the friends of President Johnson and Gov. Worth will be able to make the proper selection. No man who does not endorse both, and who does not commit himself unequivocally against the Howard amendment, can be elected in this County. That, we regard, as certain.

DURING THE second session of the late Legislature, a member of the House lectured that body, at some length and with considerable vehemence, for trifling with the business before it. No sooner had he finished, than that incorrigible wag and excellent fellow, Gaines, of Montgomery, rose and remarked, with quaint solemnity: "Mr. Speaker, I m-merely w-wish to inquire of the House if it d-don't feel very l-bad?"

After all the hectoring, begging and lecturing of the Standard, the Radical Convention or mass meeting, on the 20th., numbered just 18 individuals. We simply wish to enquire of William and Joseph, and Font Taylord, if they don't feel m-ighty bad?

THE POETIC sub-editor of the Standard drew too largely upon his imagination (but that is the province of a poick,) in his allusion to the Editors of the Sentinel, in connection with the display of the flag on the day of the meeting of that little squad at the Standard office. Any insinuation that the Editors feel any disrespect for it, as the emblem of the national government, is false and unfounded. It is prostituted, when flung out in honor of Radicalism, which is but another name for disunionism.

"UNMISTAKABLY LOYAL."—The Newbern Commercial says that the following notice was posted in the town of Beaufort on Saturday last:

NOTICE.—There will be a meeting of the Unmistakably Loyal Men of the Town of Beaufort, in the Court House, on Saturday evening, at 7½ o'clock, 15th. inst. Our Colored Bretheren are cordially invited to attend.

MANY CITIZENS.

It further states, that it is informed, that the mover in this matter is a certain 'jack-leg-lawyer', not a native of Carteret. We observe by the proceedings of the Loyalists Convention in this city, that one W. J. Doughty, one of the Secretaries, represented Carteret. Is Mr. Doughty the author of the above? If he is not, he ought to disclaim it, as the remarks of the Commercial look rather pointedly at him.

Mr. HOLDEN says in his address, that when he was relieved as Provisional Governor, he left four thousand "loyal" men in office. He has often intimated that "loyalty" consisted in support of him for the office of civil Governor.—There were many counties in the State in which the Ex-P. G. didn't get as many votes as he had appointed Squires.

The Address of the Cleveland Convention.

The address or declaration of principles of the Soldiers' Convention at Cleveland is lenghty, and reviews fully the aspect of political affairs and opposes the constitutional amendments as being effective only of a prolonged exclusion of the Southern States from the Union. It calls upon the soldiers and sailors of the late war to unite together in their efforts to restore the Union. The address concludes as follows:

"We want a Union not merely in name, but a Union in fact; not a Union merely of geographical lines, but a Union of hearts. Such a Union we fought to maintain, such a Union we wish to enjoy. By it alone can our nation accomplish its true mission and fulfil its true destiny. So believing, we anxiously and earnestly appeal to you, our former comrades in arms, to assist in the great work of pacification. We appeal to you, not as democrats, not as republicans, but as patriots and national Union men. Whatever others may say, you know that those who stood shoulder to shoulder with you throughout four years of terrible war are truly loyal.

You, at least, will never question their fidelity to and their affection for the Union and the constitution, whatever differences of opinion may exist—now that the war is over, and that the insurrection is quelled—between those who together offered their lives as a constant and willing sacrifice that the life of the nation might be saved. Let no criminations or recriminations mar or disturb that mutual esteem which should be ever cherished by those who have shared common danger in contending for a common cause. We were brothers during the dark day of the rebellion, let us remain friends during the brighter days of peace, and as we carried desolation into the South when she was hostile and defiant, let us unite in tendering to her not only just but generous treatment now that she is subdued and disarmed. If we but do this, if we but evince the magnanimity of spirit always politic from the victor al the conquered, the honor and pride of the Southern soldiers will so respond that our beloved Union shall be stronger, better, firmer than ever before. May the God of our fathers, who by his blessings enabled them, through a seven years' war, to establish a Union, and we, their children and sons, to vindicate it in the late terrible struggle, grant his aid and assistance in our efforts to establish and perpetuate it."

The address was adopted amidst the greatest enthusiasm.

After resolutions of thanks to the officers of the convention and the citizens who had tendered hospitalities to the convention, the Convention was closed by singing the Doxology and a benediction.

The closing scenes of this Convention were grand and impressive beyond all description. the whole proceedings had been dignified and orderly, but more enthusiastic than any but a body of soldiers could make them. Old habitues of Conventions have remarked that never have they witnessed so much dignity, order and enthusiasm in any Convention.

Plain Truth.

The Old North State says:

"The protection which these men want is simply the power to oppress others—they want no other. When they assert that their lives and property are in danger in North Carolina because of their political opinions they assert what they know to be false. Some of their property may be in danger from executions in the hands of the Sheriff, but their political opinions have nothing to do with it.

They warmly endorse the Howard amendment, and then resolve that "the organizations in the unrepresented States assuming to be State governments not having been legally established, are not legitimate governments until recognized by Congress." If this be true, then slavery is not abolished, as the constitutional amendment abolishing it was ratified by these "illegitimate governments." And how can the Howard amendment itself be ratified, if there is no legitimate State government to ratify it. But they do not believe what they say. They desire Congress to set aside the action of the President, and proceed to construct new governments for the Southern States under such restrictive and exclusive law as will place all power in their hands. As to the Union, they do not care a straw about it unless they can mould it to suit their purposes. It is not a government for their posterity which they wish to establish, but only for themselves. They may believe that they are patriotic, and some of them may possibly be honest, but they are governed more by selfishness than any class of men of whom we have ever heard or read. The most favorable attitude in which those of them who are honest can possibly appear before the public, is that of men who have brooded over wrongs, real or imaginary, until they have become monomaniacs. The true Union men of the country feel themselves perfectly secure in person, property and political rights. They fear no molestation for the reason that they molest nobody. They stood by the Union upon principle, and if they fail to obtain office they will not become disunionists. Indeed, but few of them are office-seekers. If they have a good government well administered they are content."

The Radical Platform.

The following is one plank of the Radical platform:

"Resolved, That the organizations in the unrepresented States, assuming to be State Governments, not having been legally established, are not legitimate governments until recognized by Congress."

That is a clear proposition. If the Radicals triumph we shall have no State governments. They will be declared to be unconstitutional and unlawful. Every imprisonment for crime will be a false imprisonment. Every execution for murder, rape or other heinous offence will be a judicial murder. Every sheriff who has collected taxes may be sued for extortion. If the Radical platform triumphs the State owes no debts and the question of repudiation is an established fact. If the Radical platform triumphs we have no law, no government, no courts of justice. Every man is a law suit himself, the property of the people is held in common by all, and the strongest man is entitled to the biggest pile.—Winston Sentinel.

The Mass Ratification Meeting in New York—Letter from Mr. Fillmore.

Among the letters received by the committee to invite speakers to address the people at the great mass meeting held in New York, Monday evening, was the following:

FROM EX-PRESIDENT FILLMORE.

BUFFALO, Sept. 11, 1866.

Gentlemen:—I am honored by your note of the 5th instant., inviting me to address the great mass meeting to be held in New York, on the 17th., to respond to the action of the National Union Convention at Philadelphia; but while I most cordially approve of the objects of the meeting, I am compelled respectfully to decline the invitation.

I am, with great respect, truly yours,

MILLARD FILLMORE.

Official Proceedings of the Holden-Radical Meeting.

At a meeting held in Raleigh, on Thursday, September 20th., 1866, on motion of C. R. Thomas, Esq., of Craven County, Hon. W. W. Holden was called to the Chair, and on motion of R. F. Lehman, Esq., of Craven, R. W. Logan, of Rutherford, and W. J. Doughty, of Carteret, were appointed Secretaries.

The Chairman explained the object of the meeting in an appropriate manner.

On motion, the Chairman adpointed the following gentlemen a committee to prepare resolutions for the action of the meeting:

C. R. Thomas and R. F. Lehman, of Craven.
D. A. Jenkins, of Gaston.
E. T. Blair, of Randolph.
John Robinson, of Wayne.
Henderson A. Hodge, of Wake.
J. B. McMurray, of Alamance.
N. Chandler, of Davidson.
J. C. L. Harris, of Rutherford.
Jesse Green, of Davie.
W. C. Gunter, of Chatham.

The committee retired and after due deliberation reported through their Chairman, Mr. Thomas, the following resolutions, which were unanimously adopted:

The Union State Mass meeting assembled in the city of Raleigh, the 20th day of September, 1866, for the purpose of maintaining and preserving the organization of the Union party, to the end that the State government of North Carolina may be so administered as to secure the restoration and perpetuation of the rights, privileges and immunities of the people thereof, and their form of government in harmony with the National Government—grateful for the preservation of that sentiment of nationality which is the shield of the Constitution and the sure guarantee of Republican form of government, do, with a sincere desire for reconciliation, forgiveness and charity among all classes of American people, who were either engaged or involved in the late civil war, resolve—

1. That only those men, without regard to their antecedents, who are "unmistakably loyal" to the government of the United States, should be appointed and elected by the people of North Carolina to any office or place of trust or profit.

2. That, in order to secure the re-establishment of the State in the Federal Union; the speedy restoration of all rights, privileges and immunities of her loyal citizens, and the final adjustment of the governmental relations of her whole people in harmony with the National Government, the amendment proposed by the present Congress, as article 14, to the Constitution of the United States, as a condition precedent to these ends, should be accepted and ratified by the General Assembly of North Carolina.

3. That, having full confidence in the justice and magnanimity of Congress that upon the ratification of said proposed amendment the disability to hold, or to be eligible to office imposed therein, will be, in every proper case, removed without discrimination as to any class or party of our fellow citizens on account of their antecedents, and that the State of North Carolina will be forthwith re-admitted to the Union, we would respectfully urge upon our whole people to consider, and demand that the same be ratified by their representatives in the next General Assembly.

4. That in the present anomalous state of the country, without any provisions contained in our written Constitutions, either State or National, or precedents in American history to guide us safely in the great work of restoring the relations of a State government ruptured by civil war in harmony with the National Government, we desire and now stand ready to co-operate, without obstinate adherence to any special plan or policy of restoration, in any further or other action that in the wisdom of Congress and the Executive may be deemed necessary to guarantee to the State of North-Carolina a Republican form of government, and restore the Union.

5. That we profoundly regret the defection of Governor Worth from the Union cause, his proscription for opinion's sake of Union men from office, and the injurious influence which the prominent instigators and actors in the rebellion are exerting over him in his official conduct. We cannot hope that the State will be restored to the Union under his auspices; and, as we prefer principles to men, and believe the restoration of the Union to be more important and more vital to the best interests of the State than everything else, we feel it to be our duty firmly to oppose his re-election.

6. That having full confidence in the patriotism, ability, and sterling Unionism of Gen. Alfred Dockery, of the County of Richmond, we hereby unanimously recommend him to the people of North Carolina, as a suitable person to be chosen Governor at the election to be held on the 18th of October next. Gen. Dockery is well known as a firm and unflinching Union man. He has had no connection with the causes that led to our present unhappy condition, and he has been true to the Union cause. His interests as a farmer are identified with those of the great body of our people. His election in the present crisis would be a fortunate circumstance for the people of the State, and would do much with the loyal people of the North to open the way for our return to the Union.

Letters were read from Lewis Thompson, Esq., Robert P. Dick, Esq., and other distinguished Unionists, approving the objects of the meeting and expressing a warm preference for ALFRED DOCKERY for Governor.

On motion of Jas. F. Taylor, Esq., of Wake, a committee of three was appointed to act in conjunction with the officers of the meeting in informing Gen. Dockery of his nomination. Whereupon the Chair appointed James F Taylor, H. J Menninger, and E. T. Blair.

On motion, it was

Resolved, That the Chairman appoint a State Committee of fifteen, to aid in promoting the Union cause in the State.

Under this resolution the Chair appointed the following gentlemen:

Lewis Thompson, of Bertie.
David M. Carter, of Beaufort.
Dr. Eugene Grissom, of Granville.
C. R. Thomas, of Craven.
O. H. Dockery, of Richmond.
E. L. Pemberton, of Cumberland.
Thomas Settle, of Rockingham.
Robert P. Dick, of Guilford.
Calvin J. Cowles, of Wilkes.
Tod R. Caldwell, of Burke.
R. M. Henry, of Macon.
A. H. Jones, of Henderson.
L. L. Stewart, of Buncombe.
G. W. Logan, of Rutherford.
Dr. W. Sloan, of Mecklenburg.

On motion, it was

Resolved, That the Chairman of this meeting be requested to furnish a copy of his address to be published with these proceedings; and that the Raleigh Standard, Newbern Times, Charlotte Democrat, People's Press, Henderson Pioneer, and Rutherford Star be respectfully requested to publish the proceedings and address.

On motion, it was requested that R. W. Logan, one of the Secretaries of this meeting, proceed to Richmond County to inform Gen. Dockery of his nomination.

On motion, the thanks of the meeting were tendered to the Chairman and Secretaries, and then on motion the meeting adjourned.

W. W. HOLDEN, Ch'm.

W. J. DOUGHTY, R. W. LOGAN, Secretaries.

Saturday Evening, Sept. 22, 1866.

CITY AND STATE ITEMS.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—Oliver Ditson & Co., Boston: Another musical announcement.

Geo. T. Cooke, formerly one of our most enterprising merchants, again enters the lists with a superb stock of Fall and Winter Goods.—Competition is the life of trade, and Mr. Cooke seems determined to hold out the most attractive inducements.

See announcement of important sale of furniture, musical instruments, college fixtures, library, stock, &c., belonging to the Warrenton Female College, on Wednesday, the third day of October.

A pleasing entertainment, at the Commons Hall, is announced for Monday night. Mr. Morgan, the exhibitor, is a native North Carolinian, and will doubtless give the public an agreeable evening.

The Sheriff of the County announces the times and places at which the County candidates will address their fellow-citizens.

NATIONAL EXPRESS COMPANY.—We learn that the office of this Company is being removed to the store now occupied by Harding & Andrews. The latter firm will move into the building vacated by the Express Co.

DELAY.—The Northern train on the R. & G. R. R. failed to connect last evening, on account of an accident to the engine. This is a rare occurrence on this road. We learn that a change of schedule on this and the N. C. R. R. will take effect to-morrow, which will nearly restore the old schedule.

FREIGHTS.—The amount of freights on our railroads is now very large. Our Express Companies are doing a heavy business. They are conducted with energy and promptness.

COMPLAINTS.—Some of our subscribers at Pittsboro', and other points, complain that they do not get their papers regularly. We assure them they are promptly and regularly mailed from this office. The Route Agents, we believe, are generally attentive. We fear at some points the Postmasters are not so.

COTTON MILLS.—We are happy to learn that the proposition to erect a large Cotton Factory in this City, for the manufacture of stripes, ginghams, &c., has met with sufficient encouragement to justify us in calling it a success.

ARRIVALS AT THE YARBOROUGH HOUSE, Sept. 21st.—E. R. Masher, J. C. Richardson, Johnston Co.; M. Duffy Mutts, Newbury, S. C.; R. H. Cowan and lady, Salisbury, N. C.; E. M. Belcher, Louisburg, N. C.; Thos. Sharpe, Jno. Cox, Jas. Peters, Jno. Peters, Joel Mitchell and lady, Joel Cooking, Jas. Stephens, Thos. Edwards, Chas. Cordick, Pennsylvania; Jno. McRae, three ladies, three children and servant, Wilmington, N. C.; Thos. G. Hulton, Charlotte, N. C.; R. H. Jones, Charleston, S. C.

ARRIVALS AT THE EXCHANGE HOTEL, SEPT. 21st., 1866.—C. M. Lee, Alamance; S. Bows, J., Richmond, V.; E. C. Hood, Ga.; C. P. Cardozo, Norfolk; T. W. Moore, N. C.; Rufus Morgan, Warrenton; Gen. R. E. Colston, Hillsboro; E. A. Russell, Mebanesville; J. R. Green, Durhams; Judge A. S. Merriman, Asheville; Hon. Thos. Settle, Rockingham; A. R. Mayer, S. Wilkinsky, Charlotte, N. C.; O. Desmarks, Australia; S. Jacobs, Karl Von Golberg, Chester, S. C.; W. Ware Peck, N. Y.; Jas. Gray, Winston, N. C.; B. Y. Rogers, Wake Co.; S. Boon, Fayetteville; Geo. K. Labin, E. S. Labin, P. W. Groot, N. Y.; R. E. Morecock, R. & G. R. R.; H. K. Lewis, Mo.; J. P. Little, Fla.; C. P. Morris, H. E. Lane, Ala.; J. N. Jones, S. Freeman, Miss.

THE NEXT LEGISLATURE.—Murdoch McRae, Esq., is a candidate for the Senate in the District of Richmond and Robeson. Mr. Thomas J. Covington is a candidate for the House of Commons, from Richmond County, and Mr. R. McNair and Lieut. McArthur are candidates in Robeson. All these gentlemen are Conservatives and firm supporters of President Johnson and Gov. Worth.

J. R. Logan, Esq., is the Johnson-Worth candidate for the Senate in the District composed of the counties of Rutherford, Cleaveland and Polk. He is opposed by C. L. Harris, Radical.

RICH LANDS.—The world does not produce, perhaps, better lands than are found in the Eastern Counties of this State. A friend who has just visited the rich lands on South Creek, in Beaufort County, informs us that he saw a field of corn, of 150 acres, which the best judges say will produce 10,000 bushels. This is remarkable for the present season. Lands producing, without manure, from fifteen to twenty barrels per acre, are common in that region.

CROPS.—A friend from the Northeast counties informs us that the corn crop has been greatly damaged by the drought. The cotton crop is doing better.

For the Sentinel.

A Card.

THE LADIES OF THE "Memorial Association" of Wake Co. return their thanks to Mr. JNO. C. WINDER for the beautifully executed plot of the ground surveyed, designed as a sacred receptacle for the remains of our noble dead.

His prompt attention merits our warmest thanks.

BISHOP GREEN.—This venerable and distinguished prelate is at present on a visit to Wilmington. He is said to be enjoying fine health.

A large meeting was held in Toledo, Ohio, on the 19th., to ratify the proceedings of the Philadelphia Convention of August 14th. General Mullen and General Steedman were the principal speakers.

Dr. W. H. Wheeler.

Our cotemporary, the Raleigh Sentinel, makes the following significant interrogations: "What has become of our friend Dr. W. H. Wheeler? He made a capital Representative, and we were in hopes to see him returned."

Had our cotemporary closely observed the workings of partizans and cliques in this county, to have accounted for Dr. Wheeler not appearing in the field it need not have asked the question. The facts in the case would have been sufficiently explanatory within themselves. Dr. Wheeler is a gentlemen of great self-respect,—and he cannot swallow the Howard Amendment; he is unwilling to march up side by side with a buck negro to the ballot box; he is unwilling to see the State Governments of the South overthrown for want of civil officers to carry them on; he is unwilling to see four-fifths of all the best men of his section disfranchised. These in connection with another striking principle of honor and self-respect among gentlemen accounts for his not appearing as one of the nominees of the late Radical Convention held in this county. He, like Charles Teague, Esq., cannot be led by the nose by a CLIQUE of destructive politicians, who are willing to sell out the people to get gain. It is well known that there is a miserable CLIQUE in the county of Forsythe, composed of not more than one dozen selfish politicians, who have assumed to themselves the right of appointing all the candidates to office, and of assigning to the chopping block the neck of every man who refuses to bow down to them. Dr. Wheeler would not bend the knee to this miserable cabal, and for this reason he is left out in the cold.—Winston Sentinel.

From Memphis.

MEMPHIS, Sept. 18.—A large meeting of soldiers of the late Confederate army was held here to-night. General John C. Fletcher presided. A despatch from General Granger, President of the Cleveland Convention, to General Forrest and others, thanking them for expressions of sympathy with that Convention, was read. Speeches were made by Generals Forrest, Chalmers, Holmes and others, eminently loyal, and expressing their intentions to abide by the results of the late war, and to sustain the President in his efforts to restore the Union as it was.

Resolutions were adopted sympathizing with the object of the Cleveland Convention, and expressing a willlingness to trust their fate to those who had met them in the field, and denouncing as false the reports that Northern men were not safe here. Reference was made to General Forrest saving the life of the would-be assassin of Col. Galloway. The whole affair passed off pleasantly, and loyal airs were applauded.

The North Carolina Trials.

Special dispatch to the New York Tribune.

WASHINGTON, September 18.—It is generally understood in official circles that the Raleigh Bureau Court-Martial returned a finding in the case of General Whittelsey and other officers, excepting one, of acquittal, but for some unaccountable reason the verdict has not been made public. Two civilians have been tried by the commission, which is the same as tried the Bureau officers, but have been doing nothing for the past four weeks, as others of the accused, by the Steedman-Fullerton report, live out of the martial districts, and there is no power to compel their attendance for trial.

A quiet card from ex-Senator Richardson, of Illinois:

To the Editor of the Quincy Herald:

I see, from the Jacksonville Sentinel, that General B. M. Prentiss, in a speech made at Jacksonville a few days since, insinuated that President Johnson was accessory to the assassination of the late President Lincoln. He also, as reported, said he was backed in this suspicion by "the opinion of Hon. William A. Richardson," as expressed to himself.

If he made the statement in reference to me, I declare him to be a base and infamous liar.

W. A. RICHARDSON.

QUINCY, Ill., August 24.

The Precise Import of the Constitutional Amendment.

The real point in the famous constitutional amendment now pending, which professes to represent the ideas of the Congress on the subject of the rehabilitation of the Southern States, is the clause which deprives the South of all representation for the negro population. It is true, that by conceding universal negro suffrage, the Southern States may count that population as the basis of representation. But as the matter is left to each Southern State to determine for itself, it is evident, that as a practical question, the amendment simply deprives the South of the representation based on the negroes, inasmuch as there is not the slightest probability that the Southern States would grant universal negro suffrage in order to retain their political power unimpaired.

Testing the constitutional amendment by the evident effect of it, it amounts simply to taking from the South all representation of the negroes.

Such being the amendment we would be glad to have pointed out where the President had ever committed himself to this policy. At what time, where, and to whom did he express himself in favor of taking from the South the representation which the colored population gave it?

While the President has never given his assent to this cutting off of the legitimate political power of the South as the Constitution now stands, so, further, he has never committed himself to universal negro suffrage.

In his celebrated conversation with George L. Stears, the President expressly said, that "it would not do to let the negroes have universal suffrage now; it would produce a war of races."

In the President's despatch to Gov. Sharkey, his Excellency defined his views on this subject. He said: "If you could extend the elective franchise to all persons of color who can read the Constitution of the United States in English and write their names, and to all persons who own real estate valued at not less than $250, and pay taxes thereon," &c.

From this last extract, what the President favored was equality of suffrage.

But this policy is rendered impossible by the proposed amendment to the Constitution. Under that amendment a State is not permitted to have a policy of suffrage which does not discriminate on account of color; but it must have universal suffrage, or lose the black element as a basis of representation.

The President, therefore, in refusing to adopt the proposed amendment of the Constitution requiring universal negro suffrage, or the cutting off all representation based on this population, is entirely consistent with all of his declarations upon the subject.

This fact stands out in bold relief, and no amount of ingenious writing can impair or weaken it in any degree.—National Intelligencer.

The friends of Governor Worth are so confident of his re-election that scarcely an effort is being made in any direction to awaken an interest in his behalf, or to secure such support for him in the next Legislature, as is demanded.

We think it behooves his friends to manifest a greater activity than they have yet evinced. It will not do merely to elect him. He should be returned with such a majority as will send terror to the hearts of the people who are endeavoring to build up a Radical party in this State, thatt he popular will may be made known to them and silence them forever.

The newspaper press of the State is too silent on this subject. The fact that the election approaches seems to be forgotten; and the hundred eyes of that Argus, whose duty it is to watch, on the tower of the Citadel, to give alarm when the enemy approaches, seem to be closed in slumber, or to be looking in every, but the right direction. There will be opposition—we were about to say spirited opposition. There will be as vigorous an opposition as the weak concern which meets at Raleigh can inaugurate. To put them to the wall, and to give them the last blow, that is to ruin them, is the work to be performed in this campaign. It the people will arouse themselves from the lethargy which has seized them, there will be no difficulty in accomplishing this work.

Gov. Worth needs no puffing, being known well and favorably to the people; and it is not our purpose to waste words in behalf of a man who needs no vindication; but we feel that the appreciation of the people, due his services, should be made manifest by an enthusiasm which will call out their whole strength to testify at the ballot box to his patriotism, his ability and his peculiar capacity for the office which he now fills with such distinction. We call upon our brethren of the press to devote more of their time to the discussion of this subject; and to put the case clearly, and frequently, to the public, that no one will feel at liberty to absent himself from the polls at the election.

A rousing majority will testify better than words how the people value a public servant who has evinced so many commendable qualities. That majority can be given; and no apathy should be encouraged. Every one should feel that it is incumbent on him to vote, and that on his vote alone the issue depends. Such a feeling will evoke a testimonial to Gov. Worth, and a rebuke to the Radicals that will be very valuable.—Wilmington Dispatch.

The Late Ex-Gov. Morehead.

The New York Commercial thus refers to the death of Ex-Gov. Morehead:

"We regret the loss of this statesman as a great misfortune to the South at this time. Very few of those who wrote paragraphs and made speeches during the war were aware of the services rendered by this practical and judicious man. He had for many years been the successful manager of cotton mills in North Carolina, and has rejected all the renewed absurdities in the South about the people unfit for manufacturers, and proved by success that we can spin and weave cotton, and make and forge our own iron as well as any other people.

He was at one time spoken of as Secretary of War, but merely knowing where meal and meal were to be had, how clothing was to be produced, and how transportation was to be effected—for he was the great friend of the railroad, and did much to make the great Danville connection, which saved the South for months,—only knowing these things, he was adjudged unfit for the station. But if the South had a few hundred statesmen like John M. Morehead, she would never have been dependent on other and foreign people for the clothes she wore, or the arms she wielded."

Few Pardons Being Granted.

Although there is a large collection of applications for pardon on file, and the pardon seekers who apply personally have returned to Washington in augmented force since the arrival of the President, but few cases have been acted upon. Since the return of the President the following are the only persons whose pardons have been ordered to issue under the petty officer and twenty thousand dollar clauses of the amnesty proclamation:—Francis F. Dunbar, South Carolina; Charles W. Button, Virginia; Thomas P. Dockey, Arkansas; Robert Lowery, Mississippi; William M. Hall, Mississippi, and Thomas S. Calloway, North Carolina.—New York Herald.

The 82nd. regiment of negro soldiers was mustered out and threatened their officers. Gen. Sheridan promised assistance to keep order.

We learn from the Winchester News that the Committee on the Stonewall Cemetery at that place have made, up to the present time, 1350 interments. There remain about 500 more in the Episcopal Burying-ground to be removed, but they expect to complete the work this week. The dedication of the Cemetery will take place on the 25th of next October. Governor Vance, of North Carolina, and other distinguished orators are expected to be present on the solemn and interesting occasion. Arrangements are at present being made to erect durable head-boards to mark the last resting-place of each gallant spirit that rests beneath. It is in contemplation to erect, from the general fund or from special contributions, a handsome monument to the unknown dead. This monument will be placed in the centre of the Cemetery, and will be a fitting tribute to those who, although nameless, are forever enshrined in a nation's memory. It has been suggested that the citizens of each State whose dead response in this Cemetery, erect monuments on the lots occupied by their soldiers.

A Few Important Facts in Regard to the Southern Hepatic Pills.

1. They are prepared from the best quality of Medicine by the discoverer, now an aged Minister of the Gospel, and are safe.
2. They have been known for years and tested by thousands in the South, and are specially adapted to diseases of this climate.
3. Hundreds of persons are known to have been cured by them.
4. They are not recommended by the proprietor for everything, but only for diseases which arises from disordered livers.
5. Directions and certificates accompany each box, and these certificates are from well known and most respectable individuals.
6. Correspondents recommend them as good for Liver Disease, Chills and Fever, Pneumonia, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Bilious Rheumatism, Worms, Pluriesy, Bronchitis, Costiveness, Diarrhea, and Hepatic Consumption, &c.
7. Several gentlemen state that the use of these Pills has been to them an annual saving of from $100 to $200.
8. Some Physicians of the highest standing prescribe them to their patients, and hundreds of boxes have been sold to regular practitioners.

A New and Grand Epoch in Medicine!

DR. MAGGIEL is the founder of a new Medical System! The quantitarians, whose vast internal doses enfeeble the stomach and paralyze the bowels, must give precedence to the man who restores health and appetite, with from one to two of his extraordinary Pills, and cures the most virulent sores with a box or so of his wonderful and all healing Salve. These two great specifics of the Doctor are fast superseding all the stereotyped nostrums of the day. Extraordinary cures by Maggiel's Pills and Salve have opened the eyes of the public to the inefficiency of the (so-called) remedies of others, and upon which people have so long blindly depended. Maggil's Pills are not of the class that are swallowed by the dozen, and of which every box full taken creates an absolute necessity for another. One or two of Maggiel's Pills suffices to place the bowels in perfect order, tone the stomach, create an appetite, and render the spirits light and buoyant! There is no griping, and no reaction in the form of constipation. If the liver is affected, its functions are restored; and if the nervous system is feeble, it is invigorated. This last quality makes the medicines very desirable for the wants of delicate females. Ulcerous and eruptive diseases are literally extinguished by the disinfectant power of Maggiel's Salve. In fact, it is announced that Maggiel's Billious, Dyspeptic and Diarrhœa Pills cure where all others fail. While for Burns, Scalds, Chilblains, Cuts and all abrasions of the skin, Maggiel's Salve is infallible. Sold by J. MAGGIEL, 11 Pine St., New York, and all Druggists, at 25 cts. per box.

AYER'S AGUE CURE,

FOR THE SPEEDY CURE OF

Intermittent Fever, or Fever and Ague, Remittent Fever, Chill Fever, Dumb Ague, Periodical Headache or Bilious Headache, and Bilious Fevers, indeed for the whole class of diseases originating in biliary derangement caused by the Malaria of miasmatic countries.

FEVER and Ague is not the only consequence of the miasmatic poison. A great variety of disorders arise from its irritation, in malarious districts, among which are Neuralgia, Rheumatism, Gout, Headache, Blindness, Toothache, Earache, Catarrh, Asthma, Palpitation, Painful Affection of the Spleen, Hysterics, Pain in the Bowels, Colic, Paralysis, and Derangement of the Stomach, all of which, when originating in this cause put on the intermittent type, or become periodical. This "CURE" expels the poison from the blood, and thus cures them all alike. It is not only the most effectual remedy ever discovered for this class of complaints, but it is the cheapest and moreover is perfectly safe. No harm can arise from its use, and the patient when cured is left as healthy as if he had never had the disease. Can this be said of any other cure for Chills and Fever? It is true of this, and its importance to those afflicted with the complaint cannot be over estimated. So sure is it to cure the Fever and Ague, that it may be truthfully said to be a certain remedy. One Dealer complains that it is not a good medicine to sell, because one bottle cures a whole neighborhood.

☞ Let the Suffering and Diseased read the following.

☞ Let all who have been given up by Doctors, and spoken of as incurable, read the following.

☞ Let all who can believe facts and can have faith in evidence, read the following:

Know all men by these presents, That on this, the Twentieth day of June, in the year of our Lord, One Thousand Eight Hundred and Sixty-Six, personally came Joseph Haydock to me, known as such, and being duly sworn, deposed as follows: That he is the sole general agent for the United States, and dependencies thereof, for preparations or medicines known as MAGGIEL'S PILLS and SALVE, and that the following certificates are verbatim copies to the best of his knowledge and belief.

JAMES SMEITER,
Notary Public,
L. S. Wall Street, New York.

June 1, 1866.

DR. MAGGIEL:—I take my pen to write you of my great relief and that the awful pain in my side has left me at last—thanks to your medicine. Oh, doctor, how thankful I am that I can get some sleep. I can never write it enough. I thank you again and again, and am sure that you are really the friend of all sufferers. I could not help writing to you, and hope you will not take it amiss.

JAMES MYERS,
116 Avenue D.

This is to certify that I was discharged from the army with Chronic Diarrhœa, and have been cured by Dr. Maggiel's Pills.

WILSON HARVEY,
New York, April 7, 1865. 27 Pitt Street.

The following is an interesting case of a man employed in an Iron Foundry, who, in pouring melted iron into a flask that was damp and wet, caused an explosion. The melted iron was thrown around and on him in a perfect shower, and he was burnt dreadfully. The following certificate was given to me by him about eight weeks after the accident.

New York, Jan. 11, 1866.

My name is Jacob Hardy: I am an Iron Founder; I was badly burnt by hot iron in November last; my burns healed, but I had a running sore on my leg that would not heal; I tried Maggiel's Salve, and it cured me in a few weeks. This is all true, and any body can now see me at Jackson's Iron Works, 2nd Avenue

J. HARDY,
119 Georick Street.

Extract from Various Letters:

"I had no appetite; Maggiel's Pills gave me a hearty one."

"Your Pills are marvelous."

"I send for another box, and keep them in the house."

"Dr. Maggiel has cured my headache that was chronic."

"I gave half of one of your pills to my babe for cholera morbus. The dear little thing got well in a day."

"My nausea of a morning is now cured."

"Your box of Maggiel's Salve cured me of noises in the head. I rubbed some of your Salve behind my ears and the noise left."

"Send me two boxes; I want one for a poor family."

"I enclose a dollar; your price is twenty-five cents, but the medicine to me is worth a dollar."

"Send me five boxes of your pills."

"Let me have three boxes of your Salve by return mail."

I have over 200 such Testimonals

As this, but want of space compels me to conclude

J. MAGGIEL, M. D.

THE GORGAS

MINING AND MANUFACTURING COMPANY,

On Deep River, Chatham Co., N. C.

OFFER FOR SALE

AT AUCTION!

Their entire Manufacturing Establishment, Including Grist Mill, &c., &c.

The Gorgas Mining and Manufacturing Company will sell at public auction, on the premises, the 27th. instant, their valuable situated on Deep River, 30 miles west of Raleigh, and 6 miles of Pittsboro', the county seat of Chatham county. The Mill is now in operation, grinding Wheat and Corn.

IRON WORKS AND MILL,

The Water Power is unsurpassed, being capable of the application of 300 horse power, if necessary.

The Machinery embraces every variety used in first-class Machine Shops, such as Planers, Lathes, Milling Machines, Trip and Drop Hammers, Rip Saws, &c., &c., complete for making Railroad Cars, or can be easily converted into a first-class Agricultural Manufactory.

There are 27 Cabins and large Stables on the premises, and ample accommodations for laborers and teams.

The Factory is situated in the midst of Coal and Iron fields, immediately on the river, which affords transportation at trifling cost.

Inexhaustible Copper Mines, of superior quality, are within 1½ miles of the shop, and it may be added that the country adjacent abounds in magnificent forest of Pine and Oak.

At the same time, will be sold—

30 Tons of Pig Iron.

In addition to Steamboat Navigation from Wilmington to the Factory door, a Railroad is now in process of construction from Raleigh to the Gorgas Company's Factory.

Our Agent, on the premises, will show the property to any one wishing to examine it.

Letters of enquiry may be addressed to Col. J. M. HECK, Warrenton, N. C., or to P. T. NORWOOD, Petersburg, Va.

THE NATIONAL UNION BUSINESS COLLEGE

WASHINGTON, D. C,

Offers superior advantages for a thorough Business Education.

The course of instruction embraces Commission, Importing, Jobbing, Retailing, Bank and other Bookkeeping, Commercial Law, Arithmetic, Correspondence, Spencerian Penmanship and Business Practice.

PENMANSHIP is taught by Henry C. Spencer, the leading author of this system, and celebrated as the Editor of the "Spencerian Key to Practical Penmanship," adopted by nearly all first class Colleges as the standard of criticism. Unusual facilities are here presented for acquiring this valuable art.

The system of "BUSINESS PRACTICE," originated and successfully taught by the Proprietor, receives his special attention. This is the most valuable part of the course. Here the student applies his theoretical knowledge. He buys and sells representative mdse, makes out notes, drafts, invoices, &c., deposits College money in the College Bank, and checks it out as his business requires. Becoming, in turn, Retailer, Wholesale, Forwarder, Banker, he soon acquires a knowledge of business forms, learns to compose and condense the history of every transaction and thinks for himself. He is thus prepared for actual business.

Full scholarship, good for review at any time, with Life Membership in this Union of Colleges extending to the principal cities, only $45. Books and stationery extra.

For circulars giving full information, for specimens of Penmanship, of the College currency and merchandise.

HILLSBOROUGH MILITARY ACADEMY.

The exercises of this well known institution, founded by the late Col. C. C. Tew, will be resumed on the 1st. day of October next, under the direction of Gen. R E COLSTON, a graduate, and for fifteen years, (up to the commencement of the war) a Professor of the Va., Military Institute.

The course of instruction will be such as to make the Academy a great a school of theoretical and applied science—in which languages and literature will also receive a full share of attention. The discipline and instruction will be upon a complete military basis.

Gen'l. Colston's long experience and extensive acquaintance enable him to assure the public, that he will secure the services of Professors of distinguished ability as the wants of the school require them, and he confidently relies upon the liberal patronage of his old friends and companions in arms, throughout N. C. and the whole South.

Applications for admission must be made as early as practicable, to the Superintendent, and accompanied by testimonials of good moral character. Circulars containing full information will be issued in a few days. For these, and all further particulars, apply to GEN R. E. COLSTON, Superintendent Hillsborough Military Academy, Hillsborough N. C.
